EASTERNERS FOR LATONIA

NOTABLE METROPOLITAN OWNERS TO BE REP-RESENTED AT APPROACHING MEETING.

R. T. Wilson, F. R. Hitchcock, H. K. Knapp, H. C. Hallenbeck, T. F. Rvan, Capt. E. B. Cassatt and F. Johnson Included in List.

Cincinnati, O., May 29.—Latonia patrons will enjoy a treat this spring and summer in seeing in action on the Kenton County track the greatest array of eastern horses assemblied on a western course since the passing of Washington Park, Chicago's famous racing ground. For instance, the racing strings of R. T. Wilson, F. R. Hitchcock and H. K. Knapp. a trio of prominent members of the Jockey Club of New York, are this season represented on the Kentucky tracks for the first time. These gentlemen have an array of over twenty horses to send to Latonia from Churchill Downs, the Hitchcock and Knapp horses being in charge of W. H. Karrick and the Wilson string in the care of James Fitzsimmons, a former well-known and capable jockey who has developed into a successful trainer. Another eastern millionaire turfman new to Kentucky racing is Thomas F. Ryan, whose filly Wondawhy made a most favorable impression on the occasion of her first appearance at Louisville recently, when she won at the first asking.

H. C. Hallenbeck's horses will again be seen at Latonia during the coming meeting in charge of Frank M. Taylor, Mr. Hallenbeck is an especially welcome addition to the ranks of owners engaged in racing on Kentucky tracks, inasmuch as he is in the market right now to buy any good horse that may show up. He has at present only seven horses in his string, they being Fauntleroy, Housemaid, Miss Minnie, Adams Express, Sir Marion, Recompense and the recently acquired $10,000 coli, Worth. Capt. E. B. Cassatt, with his string in charge of J. S. Healy, will again be at Latonia this year. He has at heatherbroom, Cintrella, Layminster and the two-year-olds Be, Spring Board, Do Nothing, Minstra and Mollie Pitcher. Heatherbroom made a favorable impression in her recent races at Churchill Downs and is counted upon as a certain starter in the Latonia the season of the precipit of

TORONTO RACING STATISTICS.

The spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club, which opened at Toronto, Ont., May 20 and came to a close May 27, embraced the seven days term legal-permitted for meetings in Canada, during which forty-nine races were run and $50,950 was distributed in stakes and purses, representing the splendid daily average of $7.278.57. S. C. Hildreth figured as the leading money-winning owner, with stable earnings closely approximating $10,000, and H. Gidnigs, a Canadian owner, is second in point of winnings with $6.390. Of fifty-five owners who shared in the distribution the following twenty-six were winners of $500 and over:

In 1879 Sly Dance and Bye and Bye ran a dead heat, Sly Dance winning the run-off. The race was for fillies exclusively until and including 1886. No time taken in 1888. It was for two-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile, until and including 1892. It has been for three-year-olds since then and at six and a half furlouges until 1907. It was not run in 1894 and 1909 and was run as the Maiden Stakes in 1895 and 1896. In all other years it was run as the Bhegrass-Stakes until 1910.

KOHLER STRING IN TRAINING.

New York, May 29.—Charles Kohler's horses, in charge of trainer William Spence, have arrived at Gravesend track from the Ramapo Farm in New Jersey. The racers that will carry Mr. Kohler's colors this season are: Master Robert, Herodia, Chickasaw, Bellema and two two-year-old fillies. Herodia, the three-year-old chestnut daughter of Adam—Wild Thyme, is the most promising prospect in the barn. Trainer Spence has not been idle with his charges and Herodia, for one, could be thoroughly fitted with a couple of weeks' sharp and steady work.

COUNTLESS BREAKS RECORD

RUNS FIVE-EIGHTHS MILE OVER CHURCHILL DOWNS TRACK IN 59% SECONDS.

Beats John Griffin II. at Latter's Own Game of Short Distance Sprinting-Wondawhy Again Scores for Thomas Fortune Ryan.

Louisville, Ky., May 29.—John G. Greener's Tennessee-bred coit, Countless, today defeated the Oklahoma "speed marvel," John Griffin H., in decisive fashion at the latter's favorite distance, five furious. In doing so Countless ran a record-making jointy by Ten Holling Countless and a recorded more but for 10 50%. John Griffin H. was an overwhelming public choice, but the Tennessee horse was not lucking for support and would have been accorded more but for his suspicions manner of going in his preliminary gallop, in which he showed decided symptoms of lameness. He exhibited none of the trouble while going to the post, however, and he raced along close done that the more than a length and a half. On the stretch turn Countless ran alongside the favorite and the contest was then over so far as first morey was concerned, for Countless only played with his rival in the final furlong. Elith Beau and Little Father furnished a stronuous contest for third money, but were never serious opponents to the lenders.

Simple of the spectators of some enjoyment, as otherwise today's sport would have been accounted great. The feature, a handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, furnished an upset in the defeat of Heatherbroom, a topineavy favorite, by Carlton G. and Leamence. The Cassatt filly was considered to have the race at her mercy and gave her backers encouragement six furlongs. She tired unexpectedly and secondary and standard prickly in the stretch to Carlton G. and Leamence. On her showing today she does not loom as formidable in long-distance racing.

Thomas F. Ryan's Wondawhy, which attracted favorable notice on her first appearance under colors, again figured this afternoon by a brilliant personant band of juveniles in striking style. Cassa stake winner here, acted as the runner up and Floral Day was third.

The closing dash resulted in a big upset when stone Street, a former Kentucky Derby winner, but recently not considered seriously, won in impressive fashion, Orbicular taking second money and The Pipin during the ser

Levington indian maid, dank water and rong furcelle.

P. J. Miles was among today's arrivals. He has turned out Ceremonius until fall.

Secretary Edward Magiun of the Latonia Jockey Club sent word today to John Hachmeister that he would be in Clincinnati tomorrow ready to assume the preliminary duties connected with his position.

Speculation today was of generous proportions and the indications are that the concluding nine days of the meeting will exceed in volume any corresponding period of the same duration.

Jockey E. Denny had to cancel his riding engagements on account of having been stricken with measles.

Jockey E. Denny had to cancel his riding engagements on account of having been stricken with measles.

Already a half dozen gentlemen riders have submitted their credentials to be approved by the committee, which will give them the right to accept mounts in the Gentlemen's Cup race to be run next Saturday. They are R. W. Keene, D. C. Herndon, M. J. Farris, Jr., H. J. Leon, Albert Dade and A. Dinkelspiel. A beautiful silver cup valued at $250 will be donated to the rider of the winner. Col. J. P. Chinn has a notable array of yearlings at his Leonatus Stud this season. In the collection is a brother to the crack racer A. J. Small, and among the good youngsters by Ort Wells that he owns are a colt out of Dixarina, by Sir Dixon, a filly out of Halcyon, by Hindoo; a colt out of Bettie Deciver, by Deceiver, and a filly out of Favorable, by Prince Royal. Colonel Chinn has bred most of his mares this season to Cesarion. He still has Ort Wells at Leonatus Stud, and he is the only thoroughbred now owned by John A. Drake, the latter having disposed of all his richly-bred mares. Yesterday's work-outs over a fast track:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

. J. Kelley is making jockey Rooney's riding agements in Kentucky.

Charles Bowman, a well-known layer, has arrived at Salt Lake City for the Lagoon meeting. John Marr, who once trained a string of horse for Eastin & Laribie, is living in retirement a Lexington, Ky.

Jockey Frank Farley, who has been riding in the Argentine Republic, has arrived at Louisville. He expects to ride at 114 pounds as a free lance during the Latonia meting.

Tommy Wright was slightly injured by a fall at the Rose Tree Hunt Club meeting at Media, Pa., Saturday. The partnership between him and Ivan Fox has been dissolved.

Fox has been dissolved.

The Latonia Jockey Club has issued a beautiful colored poster advertising the Latonia Derby, to be run June 10. A picture of last year's Derby winner, Joe Morris, with a beautiful Kentucky girl holding the bridle, adorns the poster.

Former Mayor Wright of Aylmer, Ont., is credited with being active in the promotion of a proposition for the construction of a modern mile track on the Kenny farm of 250 acres near Ottawa, Ont. The plans contemplate an investment of $100,000.

Two additional entries for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, at four miles, have been received by Secretary W. E. Bidwell of the Kentucky State Racing Commission. They are from John W. Schorr and W. E. Nunn. This swells the total subscriptions to sixteen. The date of the closing of entries for this hig roce is Thursday next.

W. K. Vanderbiit's Hessian won the Prix du Trocadero at one mile and three-eighths at the Long-champs course in France Sunday. His La Hire finished second for the Prix du Parc Princes, a three-year-old event at the same distance, stake $2,000. Nash Turner's Alby was second for the Prix de Neuily, a selling race at one mile and seven-eighths.

J. L. McGinnis is at his old barn at Gravesend with six horses, including Bob Vernon, Fair Miss, Cu Bon, Sam Jackson, Killarney Rose and Footlights. The latter is the property of George J. Kraus. Killarney Rose has been broken to harness and will be trained by the cart method. Some years back Mr. McGinnis achieved success training Buttling and Welbourne between shafts.

Welbourne between shafts.

Through the efforts of Manager John Hachmeister the L. & N. road has agreed to furnish three trains from Cincinnati to Latonia on Derby day, leaving Cincinnati at 1:15, 1:40 and 1:35 p. m. On succeeding days the 1:15 train will be discontinued, but the others will run. A new feature on these trains will be a parlor coach with reserved seats, which will prove popular with those who want to avoid the rush and get to and from the track in comfort and ease.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

S. F. R., Toronto, Ont. It was a winning bet and should be paid.

H. E. S., Chicago. One of an entry is sufficient and the bet won. Score Card, Chicago. The sum due you from the dead heat was $8.

W. M., West Allis, Ill. The price as published in Daily Racing Form of the day after the race.

A. X. Y. B., Milwaukee, Wis. The parlay won on Naushon and Alpine, being void as to the Hildreth

J. B., Harvey, Ill. The parlay lost because Third Rail ran unplaced. In a parlay all the horses named must run to the places named, if not scratched, or it loses. A limit cuts no figure in the case.

LAGOON TRACK TO OPEN TODAY.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 29.—Everything is in readiness for the inaugural meeting of the Lazoon Fair and Racing Association, beginning tomorrow. The track, for a new one, is in good condition, but will be slow for some time. Nearly 400 horses are new here ready to run and they represent the best class of thoroughbreds ever appearing on the Intermountain circuit. The presence of many prominent layers insure plenty of competition in the ring and the interest evinced by the local public indicates that the meeting will be the best this section has ever seen. The management of the new track, in an effort to withold from the handbooks of this locality the information requisite for their operation, today declined to make public the entries for the opening day's races.

STABLING ALLOTMENTS AT BLUE BONNETS.

Montreal. Que., May 29.—Saturday saw the arrival at Blue Bonnets of three more strings, including those owned by J. S. Tyree, Thomas Clyde and R. E. Watkins. In these three stables there are some useful horses that will be seen at Blue Bonnets for the spring meeting June 3 to 10. The Tyree string consists largely of two-year-olds, including Blitzen, Jr. In the Watkins string there are two such good horses as Cliff Edge and Blackford. Cliff Edge was a stake winner at Toronto and came here in the best possible condition.

For the first time Harry Giddings will race here. He will bring here St. Bass, winner of the King's Plate at Toronto. St. Bass has done all that has been asked of him and will be raced here in the open handicaps.

Joseph McLennan, who will represent the Canadian Racing Associations, will be at Blue Bonnets on Thursday for the purpose of issuing training and jockey licenses and registering colors. The following are the owners to whom stabling accommodations have already been alloted: W. Walsh, John Lowe. P. S. P. Randolph, S. C. Hildreth, J. W. Schorr, William Garth, A.
